

TENANTS' UNION OF TASMANIA QUESTIONNAIRE

Do you commit to building more public housing properties during the next term of Government? If so, how many?	A Labor Government will build over 2000 additional social housing properties over the next term on top of existing government commitments
Will you commit to repealing no reason end of lease evictions?	Labor has committed to a full review of the Residential Tenancy Act on return to government; all aspects of the Act will be on the table for consideration.
Will you introduce rent control measures?	Labor has committed to a full review of the Residential Tenancy Act on return to government; all aspects of the Act will be on the table for consideration.
Will you provide stronger protections to victims of family violence?	Yes
Will you support amendments to the Act to allow for standard residential lease agreements and standard forms including a standard application form?	Labor has committed to a full review of the Residential Tenancy Act on return to government; all aspects of the Act will be on the table for consideration.
Do you support amending the Act to allow pets in rentals unless there is a good reason for their exclusion?	Labor has committed to a full review of the Residential Tenancy Act on return to government; all aspects of the Act will be on the table for consideration.
Will you support stronger regulation of the short-term accommodation	Yes, Labor will commit to regulating short stay accommodation, commencing with an immediate pause on new permits for entire dwellings in areas of high rental stress.

sector in Tasmania, returning investment properties to the long-term private rental market?
Do you support increased funding for services providing tenancy advocacy?	Yes